NUMB. 71.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, JULY 19. to Saturday, JULY 26. 1735.

LONDON, May 10.

ON Wedneſday the Right Hon. Sir Charles Wager, firſt Lord Commiſſioner of the Admiralty, and Admiral of the White Squadron of Great Britain, receiv'd his Orders to prepare to attend the King to Holland, and the following Men of War are appointed to convoy his Majeſty over, viz. the Rippon, a new fourth Rate Ship, lately launch'd at Woolwich, Capt. Swale, on board of which we hear Sir Charles will hoiſt his Flag; the Portland, a fourth Rate, Capt. Osborne; the Roebuck, a fifth Rate, Capt. Crawford; the Blandford, a ſixth Rate, Capt Burriſh; the Gibraltar, a ſixth Rate, Capt. Durell; the Hawk Sloop, Capt. Drummond; and the Fly Sloop Capt. Oates.

The ſame Day Orders were ſent to the four following Royal Yatchts to get to their Moorings, in order to be ready to carry his Majeſty and his Retinue to Helvoetſluys, viz. the Royal Carolina, Sir Charles Hardy, on board of which the King embarks; the William and Mary, Capt. Brett; the Katherine, Capt. Pomroy; and the Charlotte, Capt. Bridges.

His MAJESTY's moſt Gracious SPEECH to both Houſes of Parliament on Thurſday the Fifteenth Day of May, 1735.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Am glad the Buſineſs of this Seſſion of Parliament is brought to ſuch a Concluſion, that I have now an Opportunity of giving you ſome Receſs, after the great Pains you have taken in the Service of your Country. On this Occaſion I muſt in Juſtice return you My Thanks for the many Inſtances you have given Me of your Duty and Affection to My Perſon and Government, and for the neceſſary Proviſions you have made for the Publick Security, as far as the immediate Circumſtances of Affairs might require.

I have conſidered with great Care and Attention the preſent Situation of Europe, and duly weighed the Conſequences, that may ariſe from the Progreſs of the War, either by means of its becoming more general, or continuing only to be carried on between the Powers already engaged.

An Accommodation of theſe unhappy Troubles appeared to be the beſt Means to prevent the Dangers, that are to be apprehended on either ſide. In this View, a Plan of Pacification was concerted between Me and the States General with great Impartiality, and not without reaſonable Grounds to hope for Succeſs, although it hath not had the deſired Effect.

But all further Reſolutions to be taken in this important and critical Conjuncture, muſt be principally determined by future Events: This makes it impoſſible for Me at preſent to take the previous Advice and Concurrence of My Parliament in ſuch Meaſures, as may become abſolutely neceſſary to be entred into. But you may be aſſured, that My conſtant Concern for the Publick Welfare, the Liberties of Europe, and, in particular, for the Felicity and Security of theſe Kingdoms, will never ſuffer Me to take any Steps, but ſuch as the Honour and Intereſt of My Crown and People ſhall call for and juſtify; and in the purſuit of theſe great and deſirable Ends, I do, with the beſt grounded Confidence, promiſe My ſelf your zealous and affectionate Support.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I return you My hearty Thanks for the Supplies you have, with ſo much Chearfulneſs neſs and Diſpatch, granted for the Service of the current Year; which have been ſo effectually raiſed, and accompanied with ſo ſeaſonable an Augmentation of Our Forces by Sea and Land, that I ſhall be in a Condition to make uſe of them in the moſt advantageous Manner for the Publick Service, as any Occaſion, that may happen to ariſe, ſhall require.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Conduct and Prudence of this Parliament, in a time of ſo great Difficulty, cannot be enough commended. The Poſture of Affairs before Us required all poſſible Reſolution, join'd with Caution, neither to be unwarily involved in the preſent Diſturbances, nor to remain unprovided againſt thoſe Dangers, which are too obvious to ſtand in need of any Explanation, and may either directly or remotely affect Us.

As I think it neceſſary this Summer to viſit My Dominions in Germany, it is My Intention to appoint the Queen Regent here during My Abſence; of whoſe juſt and prudent Adminiſtration you have on the like Occaſion had Experience. Let Me earneſtly recommend it to you, to render the Burden of this weighty Truſt as eaſy to Her as poſſible, by making it your conſtant Study and Endeavour, as I am ſure it is your Inclination, to preſerve the Peace of the Kingdom, and to diſcountenance and ſuppreſs all Attempts to raiſe groundleſs Diſcontents in the Minds of My People, whoſe Happineſs hath always been, and ſhall continue My daily and uninterrupted Care.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majeſty's Command ſaid,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is His Maieſty's Royal Will and Pleaſure, That this Parliament be Prorogued to Thurſday the Twelfth Day of June next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly Prorogued to Thurſday the Twelfth Day of June next.

South-Carolina.

By the Honourable

THOMAS BROUGHTON Eſq;

Lieut. Governour and Commander in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS I am credibly informed, that the Paper Bills of Credit of this Province of the Denominaton of Ten Pounds, are counterfeited; And Whereas Application has been made to me by the Commiſſioners appointed by an Act for the more effectual Preventing the Counterfeiting the Bills of Credit of this Province, &c. to call in the Bills of the Denomination aforeſaid, agreable to the ſaid Act. I HAVE therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice and Conſent of his Majeſty's Honourable Council, to iſſue this my Proclamation, requiring all Perſons whatſoever within this Province who are poſſeſſed of any Bills of the Denomination aforeſaid, to bring them in to the ſaid Commiſſioners before the Eighteenth Day of September next enſuing, they having the ſame Powers and Authorities to proceed in the ſame Manner with Regard thereto, as they have or do in Relation to the Denominations of the 15 l. 4 l. and 3 l. Bills mentioned in the ſaid Act, after which ſaid Eighteenth Day of September the Bills of the Denomination aforeſaid are hereby declared to be not current, and of no Value.

Given under my Hand and the Great Seal of His Majeſty's ſaid Province this Eighteenth Day of July, in the Ninth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, Annoq; Domini 1735.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

By his Honour's Command,
J. MICHIE, Dep. Secr.

THOMAS BROUGHTON.

CHARLESTOWN, July 26.

On Sunday laſt arrived here Capt. Robert Robinſon, mentioned in our laſt, with about 200 Palatines, moſt of them being poor, they are obliged to ſell themſelves and their Children for their Paſſage (which is ſix Piſtols in Gold per head,) within a fortnight from the time of their arrival, according to the Agreement they made with the Captain, or elſe to pay one Piſtol per head more to be carried to Philadelphia. They are moſt of them Farmers, and ſome Tradeſmen. About 220 of the Switzers that have paid all their Paſſages, are now going up to Ediſto to ſettle a Townſhip there. The Government defray's them upon their Journey, provides them with Proviſions for one Year, and gives them 50 Acres a head; they are exempt from all Charges for Ten Years. The Quantity of Corn bought for them has made the Price of it riſe from 15 s. as it was laſt week, to 20 s.

I have by me a Copy of the humble Adreſs of the Grand Jury for the Province of N. Carolina to His Excellency the Governor Gabriel Johnſton, with his Excellency's Anſwer thereto, wherein his Excellency tells them plainly about paying the Quit Rent, that if they think it a hard Bargain, they may leave the King's Lands (it being his Land and not theirs) aſſoon as they pleaſe, there being to his Excellency's certain Knowledge thouſands of induſtrious Proteſtants who would gladly come into their Places, and thankfully pay the Crown double their Rents without all ſuch Clamour and Noiſe; but they being too long for this Paper the whole will be inſerted in the next.
